EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

✓

The application has been amended as follows: Cancel claims 19, 20

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims 1-18 are allowable over the prior art of the record for at least the reason that the prior art fails to teach or suggest a computer servicing cart comprising an outer cabinet; a first battery servicing compartment disposed in the outer cabinet; a first computer storage compartment disposed in the outer cabinet and including a first electrical outlet for selectively charging one or more computers; a first internal power supply; and a power shedding circuit including: a current sensing device operable to be in electrical communication with an external electrical outlet, the current sending device including means for providing a signal indicative of a current drawn from the external electrical outlet; a first relay in electrical communication with the first internal power supply, the first relay including means for selectively connecting the first internal power supply to the first computer storage compartment; and a logic circuit in electrical communication with the current sensing device and the first relay, the logic circuit including means for operating the first relay based on a comparison of the current being drawn from the external electrical outlet as indicated by the signal to a predetermined limit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. Chang et al (US Patent Application Publication 2004/0139571A1); and Madison et al (US Patent 6,008,621) along with previously cited Prior Art references teach service carts comprising means for recharging batteries. However, none of them teach specific of charging circuit claimed by the applicant in the current application.
